Construction is scheduled for completion by July 2003.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

2001-02 Goals

Progress

To help parents understand, learn, and practice strategies to become reading partners.

Wendell Elementary School was awarded an Idaho Community Foundation Grant for $3,100.00 to provide training for parents to become reading partners with their children.

To expand students writing skills, to encourage creativity, and promote literacy.

Wendell Elementary School received a $500.00 donation from the Carl Hayden Young Writers Contest. The school had the most number of winning student authors.

To develop character education.

Caring About People and Students (CAPS), a Girl's Club for 5th grade girls met weekly with two staff members to do service projects, hygiene lessons, and character education lessons.

To increase the reading skills of all middle school students.

Sixth and seventh grade students participated in either the READ 180 or the PLATO program to expand their reading skills. Students read more library books this year than in past years.

To align the curriculum to the standards for all middle school subjects.

Teachers aligned their curriculum to the standards and identified the standards to be addressed in weekly lesson plans and units of instruction.

To develop a high school bilingual education student organization.

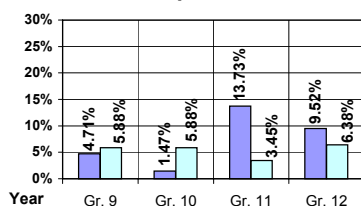

Wendell High School started a Bilingual Education Student Organization (BESO) in which over forty students actively participated.
